

Editing with a Passion for the Past

Mission

Providing copyediting and stylistic editing for writers with a passion for the past. I will work with you to turn your working draft into a clean and polished final draft, with constant respect for your voice and your reason for writing.

Skills

- ◇ Copyediting and stylistic editing of scholarly/academic articles and papers
- ◇ Copyediting and stylistic editing of fiction and nonfiction for independent authors
- ◇ English-language editing for ESL authors
- ◇ Preparing manuscripts for self-publishing
- ◇ Writing author bios and back-cover text
- ◇ Proficient in Microsoft Word
- ◇ Proficient in InDesign
- ◇ Some experience with Photoshop and Illustrator

Specialties

- ◇ History, archaeology, and related disciplines, primarily in the humanities and social sciences
- ◇ Family histories and personal memoirs
- ◇ Historical and archaeological fiction

Styles

- ◇ Chicago 16th edition
- ◇ APA 6th edition

Experience

- ◇ Over 14 years' editing experience, nearly 9 years as a freelancer
- ◇ Copyedited dissertations and articles in military history, art history, public affairs, education, nursing, and business
- ◇ As a freelancer, copyedited over 20 books as well as articles and other materials for independent authors
- ◇ In 5 years with PublishAmerica, copyedited books in compliance with company standards
- ◇ BA in ancient studies, University of Maryland Baltimore County

Contact

- ◇ E-mail: editor@sundragonediting.com
- ◇ Website: <http://www.sundragonediting.com>
- ◇ Twitter: @SundragonEdit
- ◇ Mailing address: 11528 Scottsbury Terrace Germantown, MD 20876